

Modelling for Public Policy Analysis: Emerging Trends and Future Directions

Thursday 23 February 2017

Heritage Room, Intercontinental Hotel, 117 Macquarie Street Sydney

TIME	TOPIC	PRESENTING
8:30am – 9:05am	Registration Arcade Level 1 - Arrival tea, coffee and refreshments provided
9:05am – 9:20am	Welcome Mr John Fraser, Secretary - Treasury
9:20am – 10:50am	Review of Treasury's Modelling Capability Chair: Mr Warren Tease, Treasury Panellists: Dr Wendy Edelberg – Congressional Budget Office Dr Daniel Rees – Reserve Bank of Australia	Mr Chris Murphy Independent Economics
10:50am – 11:10am	Morning tea
11:10am – 12:40pm	Long-Run Projections and Fiscal Policy Analysis Chair: Dr Angelia Grant, Treasury Panellists: Katherine Tuck and Marty Robinson – Long-Term Fiscal Projection in the Australian Treasury Dr Michael Kouparitsas – Macro models for Australian Fiscal Policy Analysis	Dr Wendy Edelberg Congressional Budget Office
12:40pm – 1:40pm	Lunch, Café Opera
1:40pm – 3:10pm	Distributional Modelling Chair: Professor Alan Woodland Panellists: Robert Ewing and Dr Susie Kluth – Distributional Analysis for Policy Advice in Australia	Jonathan Shaw Institute for Fiscal Studies
3:10pm – 3:30pm	Afternoon tea, Arcade Level 1
3:30pm – 5:00pm	The Role of Big Data in Policy Advice and Economic Analysis Chair: Dr Susie Kluth, Treasury Panellists: Dr Audrey Lobo-Pulo, Treasury	Mr Stephen Murchison Bank of Canada
5:00pm	Conference summary Closing remark	Professor Adrian Pagan Nigel Ray
6:00pm	Formal Dinner, Harbour Room Intercontinental Sydney

